To Whom It May Concern:

Throughout my career in local government, I have had the opportunity to work with many public officials and community leaders. Among them, Bernard Veasley has distinguished himself through his willingness to seek common ground and approach difficult issues with professionalism.

I have appreciated Mr. Veasley's efforts to come to our region, listen to various perspectives, and help work on collaborative solutions to challenges that, at one time, seemed insurmountable. His ability to encourage constructive conversations and focus on practical outcomes has been valuable to those involved.

Effective leadership often requires patience, respect for others, and a commitment to working through complex issues. In my experience, Mr. Veasley has demonstrated those qualities.

I appreciate his continued dedication to public service and wish him the very best in his future endeavors.

Sincerely,

Stephen J. Salvatore
